

AMERICANA MANHASSET TO HOST THE 4TH ANNUAL CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE

Manhasset, NY (July 2007): Sunday, October 7, Americana Manhasset will host the 4th Annual Concours d'Elegance. The event attracts both new and classic rare automobiles and has showcased notable cars such as the Ferrari P3/P4 and the newer Ferrari P4/P5.

This year, the event will showcase the following concept and privately owned cars:
(list in formation:)

- Maserati Birdcage designed by Pininfarina
- Grand Turismo Maserati
- Ferrari F430 Challenge Race Car
- Aston Martin DB9 Coupe
- Aston Martin Roadster
- Rolls Royce Drop Head Phantom Coupe Convertible
- Lamborghini Murcielago
- 2008 Porsche 911 Turbo
- Porsche 911 Turbo Cabriolet
- 1934 Bentley 3 1/2 Liter Hooper Sedan Coupe
- Maserati MC12
- Ferrari 599 GTB
- Aston Martin DB9 Volante
- Aston Martin Vantage
- Lamborghini Superleggera
- Rolls Royce EWB
- Bentley Azure
- Bentley GTC
- Porsche GT3-RS
- 1935 Alpha Romeo

Americana Manhasset's Concours D'Elegance will feature approximately 175 privately owned automobiles competing for Best in Class and Best in Show. Pininfarina SpA Chairman and CEO Andrea Pininfarina will attend the Concours to present the award for Best In Show during closing ceremonies. Official judging begins at 9:30 am. Howard Krimko, head of the Antique & Collectible Division of Bentley Long Island, will serve as Chief of Judges for the event. The results of the competition and the award presentation, courtesy of Tiffany & Co., will take place at 1:30 pm on the north side of the shopping center. Event sponsors include The Ritz-Carlton Residences, North Hills as the presenting sponsor, Bryant & Cooper, Cipollini and Toku as the hospitality sponsor, and Sal Son Trucking as the premier sponsor.

Americana Manhasset is a premier collection of sixty fine shops, including Prada, Gucci, Chanel, Hirschleifer's, Valentino, Cartier, Hermès, Louis Vuitton, Tiffany & Co., Dior, Fendi, Ralph Lauren, Salvatore Ferragamo, Brooks Brothers, Loro Piana, Toku Modern Asian and more, all within a unique outdoor environment designed by renowned architect Peter Marino and landscape designer Oehme van Sweden. Americana Manhasset offers a complimentary Personal Shopping Service, a remarkable luxury fashion and gift resource. Located on Long Island's beautiful North Shore, Americana Manhasset is 20 miles from Manhattan and 50 miles from the Hamptons. For more information about Americana Manhasset or the Concours d'Elegance, you can visit americanamanhasset.com.