- Recall #2031340
- SEAT BELT TENSIONER CABLE
- Status: Remedy Available

Locate an authorized General Motors dealer to obtain more information about this recall.

- Learn more about this recall

Description: General Motors has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in 2014-2016 model year Chevrolet Caprice Police Pursuit Vehicles (PPVs) and Chevrolet SS vehicles. The flexible steel cable that connects the safety belt to the vehicle at the outside of the front driver seat can fatigue and separate over time if the drivers movement into the seat repeatedly bends the steel seat belt cable down against the seat edge. In a crash, a fatigued cable could break, reducing the effectiveness of the vehicles safety belts and increasing the risk of injury to the occupant.

In a crash, a fatigued cable could break, reducing the effectiveness of the vehicles safety belts and increasing the risk of injury to the occupant.

Remedy: Dealers will replace the driver side front seat cushion outer finish cover, install a driver side front seat belt anchor plate tensioner bracket and inspect the vehicle to determine if the front seat belt anchor plate tensioner assembly is worn, and also requires replacement.

Glossary

First Owner

When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.

Manufacturer Recall

Automobile manufacturers issue recall notices to inform owners of car defects that have come to the manufacturer's attention. Recalls also suggest improvements that can be made to improve the safety of a particular vehicle. Most manufacturer recalls can be repaired at no cost to you.

Ownership History

CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1991 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Please consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.

Title Issued

A state issues a title to provide a vehicle owner with proof of ownership. Each title has a unique number. Each title or registration record on a CARFAX report does not necessarily indicate a change in ownership. In Canada, a registration and bill of sale are used as proof of ownership.
